Warranty policy

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

In normal use, if the machine fails or does not work due to its own quality problems during the warranty period, please contact Koyoe after-sales service hotline (you can obtain it through Koyoe website, warranty card and other places). Koyoe will register and handle the fault information through Koyoe after-sales service team (or its authorized third-party service provider/distributor) according to the product information and fault information you provide. At the same time provide product warranty card. For end users using the product, please contact your installer or authorized distributor as a matter of priority to deal with your problem.

If the product fails, please provide the following information or documents (this information will help the after-sales service team to deal with the machine problem):

KOYOE Warranty T&CS

- 1) Product Model and serial number (SN);
- 2) Error messages (if any, please provide pictures) and other descriptive error messages on the display;
- 3) Detailed information of machine working system (including components, circuit connections, etc.);
- 4) Previous error message (if any, please provide pictures);

If any quality problem occurs during the standard warranty period, Koyoe will choose the following methods to solve the problem according to the actual situation:

- 1) Remote online answer and guidance or software upgrade;
- 2) After sale to the installation site for testing or maintenance;
- 3) Return the machine to the factory for appraisal or maintenance;
- 4) Provide parts or products for on-site replacement (if the above three items cannot be solved, Koyoe will arrange corresponding products or parts to ensure the normal operation of the machine. Koyoe can provide equivalent product replacement for discontinued products);

Remarks:

1. Koyoe reserves the right to charge service fee after the final confirmation of non-product quality problem upon returning to the factory, and the charging standard shall be subject to the quotation;
2. During the warranty period, the replacement machine will automatically extend the remaining warranty time of the faulty machine.
3. Please keep the purchase invoice properly for subsequent use. For machines or their parts to be shipped back, be sure to pack them in their original manner or equivalent.
4. Koyoe has the right to arrange third-party service providers to provide you with after-sales service within the warranty period.
5. During the standard warranty period, Koyoe shall bear the cost of maintenance labor and materials due to the quality of the machine, but shall not include other direct or indirect losses.
